

Media Contact:
Eric Roberts
Director, Strategic Marketing
The Hennegan Company
859-538-3000

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE HENNEGAN COMPANY ACHIEVES VARIOUS HONORS IN GOLD INK AWARDS AND PREMIER PRINT AWARDS

FLORENCE, KY, October 18, 2006 - Robert Ott, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of The Hennegan Company, announced today that the company, a leading provider of ultra-fine printing in the US is a leading winner in both The Gold Ink Awards, sponsored by North American Publishing and the 2006 Premier Print Awards competition, sponsored by The Printing Industries of America (PIA) and GATF.

Mr. Ott commented: "Hennegan has enjoyed a long standing reputation as being the standard in premium printing today. We are proud that our printing is the best available and we are delighted with the recognition we continue to receive. We are committed to providing our customers the very best in quality, versatility and convenience and we're very honored to accept these awards".

The Hennegan Company won in their core business categories of "Annual Reports", "Softcover Books", "Specialty Magazines, Sheetfed", and "Consumer Catalogs, Web". Three Gold Level Gold Ink Awards were awarded to the company for the "Carter's Brand Book", a "Herman Miller SEE" publication and a softcover book about "A Year of Corn" by photographer Gregory Thorp. Three special PIA "Best of Category" awards, also known as a "Benny", (in honor of Ben Franklin, the first commercial printer in America), were awarded to the company for the "Stations Casino 2004 Annual Report", "Saks Spring Cosmetics Book", and a set of specialty cards to announce the introduction of the "Pontiac Solstice".

In addition to this award recognition from Gold Ink and PIA, The Hennegan Company has also won awards this year in competitions sponsored by Sappi Paper and PIANKO (PIA of Ohio and Northern Kentucky). Additionally, the company is the honoree for the second time of the respected Maxwell Award at the 2005-2006 PIANKO Print Excellence Awards.

Founded 120 years ago, The Hennegan Company lists many industry-leading, household name companies across the U.S. and around the world as customers. The majority of The Hennegan Company's printing comprises sophisticated, color-intensive materials such as annual reports, catalogs, inserts, brochures and other collateral.