THE HENNEGAN COMPANY
CELEBRATES SPECIAL RECOGNITION AT
2005-2006 PIANKO PRINT EXCELLENCE AWARDS GALA

Company Honored with 2005 Maxwell Award, Victorious with Best of Region Award and Award Winning in 23 Print Competition Categories

FLORENCE, KY, January 25, 2006 - Robert Ott, Jr, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Hennegan Company, announced that The Hennegan Company, a leading provider of ultra-fine printing in the U.S. was recipient of the respected Maxwell Award at the 2005-2006 PIANKO Print Excellence Awards. The company is the first to be honored twice with the Maxwell Award; the first occasion was in 1990. The company also won Best of Region Award for a specialty set of lithographs announcing the introduction of the new Pontiac Solstice. Mr. Ott shared: "We are proud of our accomplishments and we are also proud of our customers. In addition, none of this would have been possible without the dedication, motivation and innovation of our great group of teammates at Hennegan."

The gala was recently held at The National Underground Railroad Freedom Center located in downtown Cincinnati. The new center showcases the historic efforts of the Underground Railroad and also the hard work of modern day heroes and the ongoing struggle for freedom. The Hennegan Company also triumphed in the print competition, capturing nine out of a total of 16 eligible gold awards. Hennegan also won eight silver awards and six bronze awards.

Dennis Purcell, Executive Vice-President of Administration commented: "Our driving force continues to be superlative quality and unbeatable customer service. Our significant recognition tonight validates broadly that we are indeed on the right track."

Founded 120 years ago, The Hennegan Company lists many industry-leading, household name companies across the U.S. and around the world as customers. The majority of The Hennegan Company's work consists of sophisticated, color-intensive materials such as annual reports, catalogs, inserts and FSIs, point of purchase displays, brochures and other collateral.

With about 600 member companies, PIANKO is the trade association for the printing and graphic arts industry in Ohio and northern Kentucky.
