FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE HENNEGAN COMPANY IS HONORED AT 2005 NORTH AMERICAN PRINTER OF THE YEAR AWARDS

---

FLORENCE, KY, June 13, 2005 - Robert Ott, Jr, President and Chief Executive Officer of The HenneGAN Company, announced today that The HenneGAN Company, a leading provider of ultra-fine printing in the US was a Silver Winner at the 2005 North American Printer of the Year Award, sponsored by Sappi Paper. The award ceremony was held at the historic Military Drill Hall in Quebec City. The 47 silver award winners were chosen from over 2,100 entries. This award was in tribute to a colorful brochure HenneGAN printed for a Jimi Hendrix CD box set.

Mr. Ott mentioned: "A top-quality group of North America's printers were named winners in the competition's eight categories, and we are very honored to be on this very esteemed register. Over two thousand entries were involved in this year's competition, and the samples of printing excellence submitted were very admirable. Our pride and experience is represented in everything we do, and this recognition is very flattering for everyone at HenneGAN."

Roger Helms, HenneGAN's Vice President, Plant Manager shared: "Our customers regularly challenge us with the most demanding work that's produced today. This acknowledgement from Sappi Paper demonstrates our successful commitments to technology, craft and sophistication on behalf of our customers."

Founded nearly 120 years ago, The HenneGAN Company lists many industry-leading, household name companies across the U.S. and around the world as customers. The majority of The HenneGAN Company's job content consist of sophisticated, color-intensive materials such as annual reports, catalogs, inserts and FSIs, point of purchase displays, brochures and other collateral.
